Living God's Word

Each of us must choose to step into some unknown, guided by our God-given vision of what our lives must be about, a vision to which others are often blind. At these moments one can feel both most alone and most alive.

SAINT JOAN of the CROSS
(1666-1736)
Feast Day - August 17

One fine day Jeanne encountered a poor widow and pilgrim from Rennes, named Francoise Fouchet, who predicted that Jeanne would one day spend her life in care for the poor. An encounter with the shabby old woman many dismissed as insane prompted St. Joan to dedicate her life to the poor. For Joan, who had a reputation as businesswoman intent on monetary success, this was a significant conversion.

Born in 1666 in Anjou, France, Joan worked in the family business—a small shop which was near a religious shrine—from an early age. After her parents' death she took over the shop herself. She quickly became known for her greediness and insensitivity to the beggars who often came seeking help.

That was until she was touched by the strange woman who claimed she was on intimate terms with the deity. Joan, who had always been devout and even scrupulous, became a new person. She began caring for needy children. Then the poor, elderly and sick came to her. Over time she closed the family business so she could devote herself fully to good works and penance.

She went on to found what came to be known as the Congregation of St. Anne of Providence. It was then she took the religious name of Joan of the Cross. By the time of her death in 1736 she had founded 12 religious houses, hospices and schools. Pope John Paul II canonized her in 1982.

HARVEST FEST 2016

We are accepting donations for the Silent Auction (nice items) and for the White Elephant Sale during the Harvest Fest. Please bring clean used items to the office during the week.
NO CLOTHES PLEASE

From Pope Francis in the encyclical Laudato Si (2015) paragraph 64 / presented by Social Justice Ministry of C-IHM

But we should be particularly indignant at the enormous inequalities in our midst, whereby we continue to tolerate some considering themselves more worthy than others. We fail to see that some are mired in desperate and degrading poverty, with no way out, while others have not the faintest idea of what to do with their possessions, vainly showing off their supposed superiority and leaving behind them so much waste which, if it were the case everywhere, would destroy the planet. In practice, we continue to tolerate that some consider themselves more human than others, as if they had been born with greater rights.

De parte del Papa Francisco en la encíclica Laudato Si (2015) del párrafo 6/presentada por el Ministerio de Justicia Social de IHMC.

Pero debemos estar particularmente indignados por las enormes desigualdades entre nosotros, que podamos seguir tolerando que algunos se consideran a sí mismos más valiosas que otros. No vemos que algunos están sumidos en una pobreza desesperada y degradante y sin salida, mientras que otros no tienen la menor idea de qué hacer con sus posesiones, en vano mostrando su supuesta superioridad y dejando tras de sí tantos desechos que, si se diera el caso en todas partes, destruiría el planeta. En la práctica, sigamos tolerando que algunos se consideran a sí mismos más humanos que otros, como si hubieran nacido con mayores derechos.
