STEWARDSHIP PRAYER

Dear Lord,

Teach me to be generous as you have been generous with me. Teach me that all that I am and have are gifts from You, and that these gifts are meant to be shared.

Reveal to me the joys of generosity. Help me to understand that others, perhaps unknown to me, depend on my assistance.

Keep me ever mindful that as your disciple, I am called to be a "Good Samaritan" and to share the "Good News" with the world.

Make me a gift to others in your name.

Amen.

PRAYER INTENTIONS:

Our country's return to Christian morals! Peace and healing of violence and terror in our cities and the world!

NEEDS: Individuals who are able and willing to stay the entire night and say the rosary and Divine Mercy Chaplet every hour on the hour. The remaining time may be spent praying your individual prayers or visiting with our Lord in adoration.

While we realize many cannot stay the entire 12 hours, any time you can spend in prayer and adoration would be a huge blessing and would help in this worthwhile prayer event.

May Our Lord Jesus and Our Blessed Mother's Blessings be with you to help us succeed in reaching the goals of these intentions by sacrificing your time and devotion.

From Pope Francis in the encyclical Laudato Si (2015) paragraph 117 & 118 / presented by Social Justice Ministry of C-IHM

When we fail to acknowledge as part of reality the worth of a poor person, a human embryo, a person with disabilities – to offer just a few examples – it becomes difficult to hear the cry of nature itself; everything is connected. ... There can be no renewal of our relationship with nature without a renewal of humanity itself.

We are planning a Marriage Enrichment Reunion on January 7, 2017, at the Cathedral of Immaculate Heart of Mary, from 11:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. Please let us know if you are interested in attending. We would appreciate your information as soon as possible.

BLESSING OF THE ANIMALS

October 4th is the feast day of St. Francis of Assisi. As you know, St. Francis loved God's creatures and delighted in them. His feast day is an opportunity to thank God for the enjoyment we receive through the dogs, cats, and other pets that God has blessed us with.

If you would like to have your pets blessed please bring them to the lawn area between the old school and the church on Sunday, October 2nd from 5pm to 6pm. Bishop Cantú will be present to offer a general prayer and then an individual blessing for each pet. Please bring your pets in a cage or a leash.

Did you know?

Several years ago the Church changed the requirement of abstaining from meat on Fridays outside of the Lenten season. However, the church said that all Fridays are still meant to be special days of penance. In other words, you may choose to abstain from meat or substitute some other form of penance. For example, you could do some form of fasting, you could go out of your way to visit a sick or elderly person, you could give up T.V. or other forms of entertainment, etc.

The choice is yours, but all Fridays should still be penitential days.

Sabías?

Hace varios años la Iglesia cambió el requisito de abstenerse de comer carne los viernes fuera de la temporada de Cuaresma. Sin embargo, la iglesia, dijo que todos los viernes todavía están destinados a ser los días especiales de penitencia. En otras palabras, usted puede optar por abstenerse de comer carne o sustituir alguna otra forma de penitencia. Por ejemplo, se puede hacer algún tipo de ayuno, se puede ir a visitar a una persona enferma o de edad avanzada, se puede renunciar a ver la televisión u otras formas de entretenimiento, etc.

La elección es suya, pero todos los viernes deben ser aún días penitenciales.

Living God's Word

You may never be canonized. However, people should be able to look at your life and discover signs of faith. Do they see you reaching out to those in need, working for justice, caring for family, engaging in prayer, seeking reconciliation, growing spiritually? If so, they see a just one who, through the gift of faith, shall live.

SAINT MARIE FAUSTINA KOWALSKA

(1905-1938)

Feast Day – 5 October

Helena Kowalska was the third of 10 children. She worked as a housekeeper in three cities before joining the Congregation of the Sisters of Our Lady of Mercy in 1925. She worked as a cook, gardener and porter in three of their houses.

She had a deep interior life which included receiving revelations from the Lord Jesus, messages that she recorded in her diary at the request of Christ and of her confessors.

Jesus chose to emphasize his mercy and forgiveness for sins acknowledged and confessed. "I do not want to punish aching mankind," he once told St. Faustina, "but I desire to heal it, pressing it to my merciful heart". The two rays emanating from Christ's heart, she said, represent the blood and water poured out after Jesus' death (John 19:34).

Because Sister Maria Faustina knew that the revelations she had already received did not constitute holiness itself, she wrote in her diary: "Neither graces, nor revelations, nor raptures, nor gifts granted to a soul make it perfect, but rather the intimate union of the soul with God. These gifts are merely ornaments of the soul, but constitute neither its essence nor its perfection. My sanctity and perfection consist in the close union of my will with the will of God".

Sister Maria Faustina died of tuberculosis in Krakow, Poland, on October 5, 1938. Pope John Paul II beatified her in 1993 and canonized her seven years later.

The Coalition for Life is hosting a special day-early premiere of the new Christian pro-life movie called "Voiceless" at Allen Theater Telshor 12 on October 6 at 7:00 PM.

The movie features actress Jocelyn Cruz who is from right here in Las Cruces! Tickets and information are available at the website PROLIFE.LC or by contacting Mark Cavaliere at 313-2277 or mark@lascrucesforlife.org
