IMMACULATE HEART OF MARY ADORATION CHAPEL

TIME: 8pm till 8am

PRAYER INTENTIONS:

Our country's return to Christian morals! Peace and healing of violence and terror in our cities and the world!

CONTACT: Mary Brunt (575) 527-9123
Gloria Lithgow (575) 522-1532

While we realize many cannot stay the entire 12 hours, any time you can spend in prayer and adoration would be a huge blessing and would help in this worthwhile prayer event.

May Our Lord Jesus and Our Blessed Mother's Blessings be with you to help us succeed in reaching the goals of these intentions by sacrificing your time and devotion.

From Pope Francis in the encyclical Laudato Si (2015) paragraph 117 & 118 / presented by Social Justice Ministry of C-IHM

We cannot presume to heal our relationship with nature and the environment without healing all fundamental human relationships.... Our openness to others, each of whom is a "thou" capable of knowing, loving and entering into dialogue, remains the source of our nobility as human persons... Our relationship with the environment can never be isolated from our relationship with others and with God.

Fr. Jacob Nasser's group Bethlehem Catholic Mission from the Roman Catholic Church in Bethlehem the Holy Land are visiting our parish on the weekend of October 29-30, 2016. Gabriel will be sharing a few words about the Christian struggle in the Holy Land. They will also be offering some beautiful olive wood carvings which are all handmade by the Catholic community over there.

This is a Church mission to maintain the existence of the Catholic people in the Holy Land.

Catholics used to be the majority over there but the percentage has now dropped to less than 1.5%. Thanks and God bless.

SAINT JOHN XXIII
(1881 – 1963)
Patron Saint - Papal Delegates
Feast Day – 11 October

Named a cardinal and appointed patriarch of Venice in 1953, he was finally a residential bishop. A month short of entering his 78th year, he was elected pope, taking the name John after his father and the two patrons of Rome's cathedral, St. John Lateran. He took his work very seriously but not himself.

His most famous encyclicals were Mother and Teacher (1961) and Peace on Earth (1963). Pope John XXIII enlarged the membership in the College of Cardinals and made it more international. At his address at the opening of the Second Vatican Council, he criticized the "prophets of doom" who "in these modern times see nothing but prevarication and ruin." Pope John XXIII set a tone for the Council when he said, "The Church has always opposed... errors. Nowadays, however, the Spouse of Christ prefers to make use of the medicine of mercy rather than that of severity."

On his deathbed he said: "It is not that the gospel has changed; it is that we have begun to understand it better. Those who have lived as long as I have... were enabled to compare different cultures and traditions, and know that the moment has come to discern the signs of the times, to seize the opportunity and to look far ahead."

"Good Pope John" died on June 3, 1963. St. John Paul II beatified him in 2000, and Pope Francis canonized him in 2014.
