How can we genuinely teach the importance of concern for other vulnerable beings, however troublesome or inconvenient they may be, if we fail to protect a human embryo, even when its presence is uncomfortable and creates difficulties?

Annual Respect Life Mass

Bishop Cantú invites you to the annual diocesan Respect Life Mass, which he will celebrate at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Heart of Mary on Saturday, October 29th at 10:30 am. This year Respect Life Mass will be held in conjunction with the 40 Days for Life Campaign. Mass will end with the Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament and Benediction.

Following Mass, all are invited to meet at the 40 Days for Life vigil location on E. Lohman Ave. to participate with Bishop Cantú in a Divine Mercy Chaplet Procession. This procession will be public witness of our belief in the dignity of the human person from the moment of conception to natural death.

Fr. Jacob Nasser's group Bethlehem Catholic Mission from the Roman Catholic Church in Bethlehem the Holy Land are visiting our parish on the weekend of October 29-30, 2016. Gabriel will be sharing a few words about the Christian struggle in the Holy Land. They will also be offering some beautiful olive wood carvings which are all handmade by the Catholic community over there.

This is a Church mission to maintain the existence of the Catholic people in the Holy Land.

Catholics used to be the majority over there but the percentage has now dropped to less than 1.5%. Thanks and God bless.

SAINT PAUL OF THE CROSS

(1694-1775)

Feast Day - October 20th

Saint Paul of the Cross, originally named Paolo Francesco Danei, was born on 3 January 1694, in the town of Ovada, Piedmont, between Turin and Genoa in the Duchy of Savoy in northern Italy. Paul received his early education from a priest who kept a school for boys, in Cremolino, Lombardy.

He lived at a time when many regarded Jesus only as a great moral teacher. After a brief time as a soldier, he turned to solitary prayer, developing a devotion to Christ's passion. Paul saw in the Lord's passion a demonstration of God's love for all people. In turn that devotion nurtured his compassion and supported a preaching ministry that touched the hearts of many listeners. He was known as one of the most popular preachers of his day, both for his words and for his generous acts of mercy.

In 1720 Paul founded the Congregation of the Passion, whose members combined devotion to Christ's passion with preaching to the poor and rigorous penances. Known as the Passionists, they add a fourth vow to the traditional three of poverty, chastity, and obedience, to spread the memory of Christ's passion among the faithful. Paul was elected superior general of the Congregation in 1747, spending the remainder of his life in Rome.

Paul of the Cross died in 1775, and was canonized in 1867 by Pope Pius IX. Over 2000 of his letters and several of his short writings have survived.
