From Pope Francis in the encyclical Laudato Si (2015) paragraph 117 & 118 / presented by Social Justice Ministry of C-IHM

If we reflect on the proper relationship between human beings and the world around us, we see the need for a correct understanding of work; if we talk about the relationship between human beings and things, the question arises as to the meaning and purpose of all human activity... Underlying every form of work is a concept of the relationship which we can and must have with what is other than ourselves. Together with the awe-filled contemplation of creation which we find in Saint Francis of Assisi, the Christian spiritual tradition has also developed a rich and balanced understanding of the meaning of work.

Is it hard for you to hear in the Cathedral because of all the reverberation and echo? Do you wear hearing aids?

The Cathedral now has Hearing Assistance devices available. The receivers cost $80 and you will own your device.

If you are not sure if they will work for you, you can try one out. To obtain a hearing device please call the parish office at (575) 524-8563.

For those with hearing aids, you need to have a tCoil active in your hearing aids. Not sure what that is? Ask for a receiver with a neck loop. If the tCoil is active, then you will hear directly through your hearing aids. If not, a local audiologist has agreed to activate it (if your hearing aids are equipped with it) for free. We just need your name and phone number and they will call you to set up an appointment.

Please come to the Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults (RCIA)

Every Tuesday at 6:30 pm

THIS WEEK'S TOPICS:
No Class. All Saints Day. Office Closed.

You don't have to be enrolled in these classes to come and hear about a topic!

Rooms 104, 105 in the Parish Center

All are welcome!

SAINT CHARLES BORROMEIO

(1538-1584)

Patron Saint of Bishops

Feast Day - November 4th

Charles had encouraged the pope to renew the Council in 1562 after it had been suspended for 10 years. St. Charles deserves the credit for keeping the Council in session when it was on the verge of breaking up. He took upon himself the task of the entire correspondence during the final phase.

Charles was allowed to devote his time to the Archdiocese of Milan, where the religious and moral picture was far from bright. The reform needed in every phase of Catholic life was initiated at a provincial council of all the bishops under him. Specific regulations were drawn up for bishops and other clergy; he had to be the first to give a good example and renew their apostolic spirit. Charles took the initiative in giving good example. He allotted most of his income to charity, forbade himself all luxury and imposed severe penances upon himself. He sacrificed wealth, high honors, esteem and influence to become poor. During the plague and famine of 1576, he tried to feed 60,000 to 70,000 people daily. To do this he borrowed large sums of money that required years to repay. Whereas the civil authorities fled at the height of the plague, he stayed in the city, where he ministered to the sick and the dying, helping those in want. Work and the heavy burdens of his high office began to affect his health. He died at the age of 46.

The office will be closed on Thursday, November 3rd from 8am to 5pm due to a staff retreat.
