SAINT JOHN BOSCO
(1815 – 1888)
Patron Saint of Young People
Feast Day – January 31st

St. John Bosco was born on a poor farm near Turin, Italy, in 1815. At an early age he was out on the hillside tending sheep. At about his ninth year, when he expressed the desire to become a priest, it was found possible to let him commence his education by walking four miles daily for half a year. The other half, in Spring and Summer, was spent in the fields.

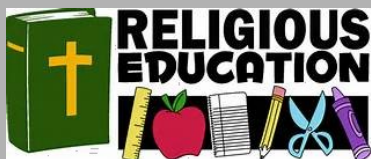

The day before he entered the seminary, his mother, laying hands on his shoulders as he stood robed in his clerical dress, said: "To see you dressed in this manner fills my heart with joy. But remember that it is not the dress that gives honor to the state, but the practice of virtue. If at any time you come to doubt your vocation, I beseech you, lay it aside at once. I would rather have a poor peasant for my son than a negligent priest. When you came into the world I consecrated you to Our Lady; when you began to study I bade you honor her and have recourse to her in all your difficulties; now I beg you to take her for your Queen."

Today the motto on the Salesian coat of arms: Da nihi animas cetera tolle tibi - "Give me only souls and keep all the rest" - bears witness to the fidelity of Don Bosco to the words of a truly Christian mother.
