Living God's Word

The divine instinct to lay down and to take up is how the Lord Jesus shepherds us, modeling so well what it means to be divine that we find ourselves imitating him and growing in his likeness. That divine instinct is how the Spirit shepherds through us.

SAINT DAMIEN OF MOLOKA'I

(1840 – 1889)

Patron Saint of People with Leprosy

Feast Day - May 10th

Father Damien was a Roman Catholic priest from Belgium and member of the Congregation of the Sacred Hearts of Jesus and Mary, a missionary religious institute.

In 1873, he went to the Hawaiian government's leper colony on the island of Molokai. Part of a team of four chaplains taking that assignment for three months each year, Damien soon volunteered to remain permanently. Father Damien also cared for the patients himself and established leadership within the community to build houses, schools, roads, hospitals, and churches. He dressed residents' ulcers, built a reservoir, made coffins, dug graves, shared pipes, and ate poi from his hands with them, providing both medical and emotional support, caring for the people's physical, medical, and spiritual needs. In time, he became their most effective advocate to obtain promised government support.

Soon the settlement had new houses and a new church, school and orphanage. Morale improved considerably. A few years later, he succeeded in getting the Franciscan Sisters of Syracuse, led by Mother Marianne Cope (January 23), to help staff this colony in Kalaupapa.

Damien contracted Hansen's disease and died of its complications. As requested, he was buried in Kalaupapa, but in 1936 the Belgian government succeeded in having his body moved to Belgium. Part of Damien's body was returned to his beloved Hawaiian brothers and sisters after his beatification in 1995.

Damien was canonized by Pope Benedict XVI on October 11, 2009.

Vivamos la Palabra de Dios

El instinto divino de entregar la vida y de recobrarla es la manera en que el Señor Jesús nos cuida, modelando tan bien lo que significa ser divino que nosotros mismos podemos imitarlo y asemejarnos cada vez más a él. Ese instinto divino es la manera en que el Espíritu nos guía y protege.

From Pope Francis in the encyclical Laudato Si (2015) paragraph 160 / presented by Social Justice Ministry of C-IHM

The pace of consumption, waste and environmental change has so stretched the planet's capacity that our contemporary lifestyle, unsustainable as it is, can only precipitate catastrophes, such as those which even now periodically occur in different areas of the world. The effects of the present imbalance can only be reduced by our decisive action, here and now. We need to reflect on our accountability before those who will have to endure the dire consequences.
