Living God's Word

Our prayer can be full of words, giving voice to our plans, our needs, our desires. We can bring a lot of "help, help, help" or "gimme, gimme, gimme" to prayer. Try just listening.

From Pope Francis in the encyclical Laudato Si (2015) paragraph 160 / presented by Social Justice Ministry of C-IHM

International negotiations cannot make significant progress due to positions taken by countries which place their national interests above the global common good. Those who will have to suffer the consequences of what we are trying to hide will not forget this failure of conscience and responsibility. Even as this Encyclical was being prepared, the debate was intensifying. We believers cannot fail to ask God for a positive outcome to the present discussions, so that future generations will not have to suffer the effects of our ill-advised delays.

St. Anthony of Padua

Patron Saint of Lost items

Feast day is June 13

Anthony was born in Lisbon, Portugal in 1195 as Ferdinand, and was taught by the Augustinian friars. He joined their order, when he was old enough. When he was twenty-five he learned of some Franciscans who had been martyred by the Moors in Morocco. Ferdinand was so impressed with the martyrs' courage, that he got permission to transfer from the Augustinian Order to the Franciscan Order, taking the name of Anthony.

No one in his new religious order realized how brilliant and talented Anthony was. He never spoke about himself. So his Franciscan superiors assigned him to a quiet friary in Italy. There he washed pots and pans. One day he was asked to preach in front of a crowd of priests and important people. Everyone was surprised at the wonderful things he said about God. From then on, until he died nine years later, Anthony was sent to preach all over Italy.

After 1226, Anthony remained in the city of Padua, Italy. There his preaching completely changed the lives of the people. He helped the poor and worked to keep people who couldn't pay their bills from being thrown into prison. His sermons helped people to not only understand their faith better, but to put it into practice, too.

There will be a second collection on the weekend of June 24-25, 2017. It will be for Good Shepherd.

Se tomará una segunda colecta el fin de semana del 24 y 25 de junio del 2017. Será para El Buen Samaritano.
