

THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

June 18, 2017

*The bread that we break,
is it not a participation
in the body of Christ?*

*Because the loaf
of bread is one,
we, though many,
are one body,
for we all partake
of the one loaf.*

Living God's Word

There is one problem with Christian discipleship. No one will ever become a master. The most we can strive for is to be journeymen, like Jonah and Jesus' disciples. We can only show others the way if we commit ourselves to the journey and walk at the Master's side, trusting and listening and following the ways of the Lord.

Dear Parishioners,

I have extended an invitation to Rev. Joseph Uecker C.P.P.S. to come to our parish on the weekend of July 22-23, 2017. Father Uecker will speak to you about the work being done by Unbound (previously known as CFCA), and how this provides a trustworthy way to actively participate in the social outreach of the Catholic Church and answer the Gospel call to serve the poor.

Founded by lay Catholics, Unbound is an organization that has served more than 600,000 children, youth and elderly in 19 developing countries since 1981 – empowering them to make more choices in their lives, live with dignity and reach their potential.

Unbound's unique sponsorship program is highly personalized. It matches a child, youth or aging person at a project overseas with a sponsor in the U.S. who cares about and encourages that person. With a monthly contribution, a sponsor helps to provide much-needed nourishing food, medical and dental care, the chance for a child to go to school, livelihood programs for families and much more. All of these efforts are directed at affirming the dignity of every person in their local community.

Please join me in welcoming Father Uecker to our parish.

Sincerely yours in Jesus Christ,

Rev. Bill McCann Rector

From Pope Francis in the encyclical Laudato Si (2015) paragraph 160 / presented by Social Justice Ministry of C-IHM

For poor countries, the priorities must be to eliminate extreme poverty and to promote the social development of their people. At the same time, they need to acknowledge the scandalous level of consumption in some privileged sectors of their population and to combat corruption more effectively.

SAINT ALOYSIUS GONZAGA
(1568-1591)
Patron Saint of Catholic youth
Feast day is June 21

Aloysius, the patron saint of young Catholics, was born on March 9, 1568 in Castiglione, Italy. Since he was so full of life, his father planned to make a great soldier out of him.

As he grew, he was sent to the court of the duke of Mantua. Dishonesty, hatred, and impurity were common there. The only effect it had on Aloysius was to make him more careful to live as a good follower of Jesus. He became sick. That gave him an excuse to spend some time praying and reading good books. When he was sixteen, he decided to become a Jesuit priest. His father refused to allow it. After three years, he finally gave in. Once Aloysius had joined the order, he asked to do hard and humble tasks. He served in the kitchen and washed the dishes.

When the plague broke out in Rome, Aloysius asked to be allowed to care for those stricken with the feared disease. The young man who had grown up with servants waiting on him now washed the sick and made their beds until he caught the plague himself.

Aloysius was only twenty-three years old when he died. It was the night of June 20, 1591. He said simply, "I am going to heaven." The body of Aloysius Gonzaga is buried in the Church of St. Ignatius in Rome. He was proclaimed a saint by Pope Benedict XIII in 1726.
